

The Good Project - Value Sort Printable Cards

Least Important Place 4 cards	Less Important Place 6 cards
Neutral Place 10 cards	More Important Place 6 cards
Most Important Place 4 cards	Broad Interests
Challenge	Creating Balance in One's Life

The Good Project - Value Sort Printable Cards

Curiosity	Courage, Risk Taking
Enjoyment of the Activity Itself	Creativity, Pioneering (originality, imaginativeness)
Fame, Success	Efficient Work Habits
Faith	Hard Work and Commitment

The Good Project - Value Sort Printable Cards

Honesty and Integrity	Independence
Openness (being receptive to new ideas or multiple perspectives)	Personal Growth and Learning
Power, Influence	Professional Accomplishment
Professional Conduct	Quality (excellent, thorough, accurate, or careful work)

The Good Project - Value Sort Printable Cards

Recognition from One's Field	Rewarding and Supportive Relationships (with family, friends, colleagues)
Searching for Knowledge, Uncovering What is True	Self-Examination, Self-Criticism, Self-Understanding
Social Concerns (pursuing the common good, avoiding harm, caring about future generations)	Solitude, Contemplation
Spirituality	Teaching, Mentoring

The Good Project – Value Sort Printable Cards

Understanding, Helping, or Serving Others	Vision (anticipating future directions, seeing the big picture)
Wealth, Material Well- Being

Instructions

With a set of thirty Good Work Toolkit Value Sort Cards:

1. Think of an activity or profession that is important to you, something that you consider your “work. Sort the cards in terms of relative importance to you while involved in this work.
2. Sort the cards in terms of relative importance to you as a person, not necessarily in relation to your work.
3. Sort the cards in terms of how important you perceive to be to a peer or colleague; to what extent do the values guide them?